

Jamiat Youth Club

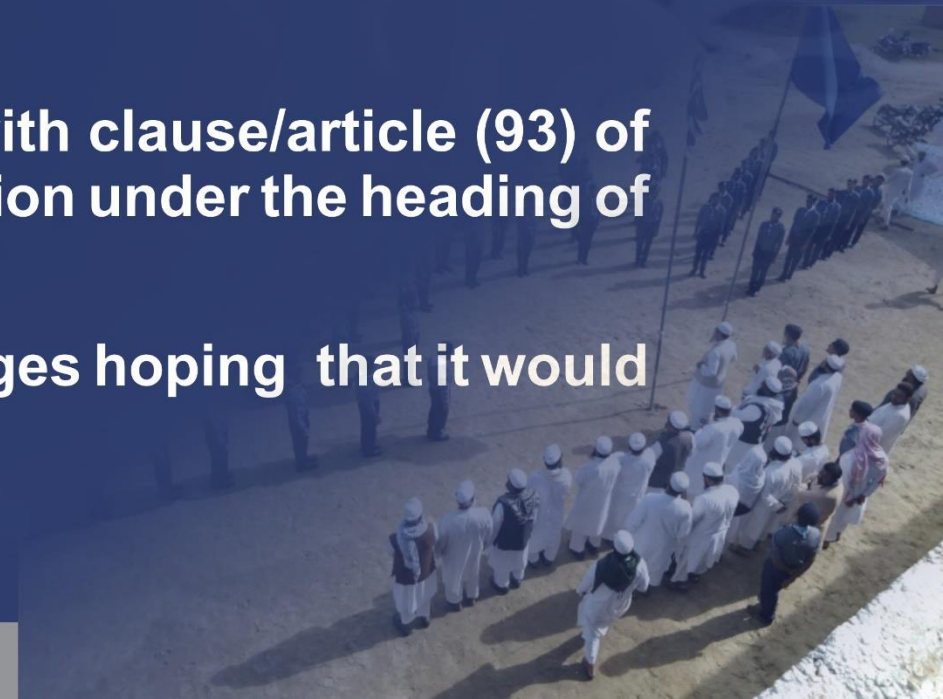

Empowering youth

A wing of
Jamiat Ulama-i-Hind

INTRODUCTION

1. Every active organization and political party has its own dedicated cadres and volunteers.
2. Jamiat Youth Club is not a new thing but it was formed in 1960 in the light of the resolution adopted in 20th General Session of the Jamiat held on October, 1960.
3. The resolution was adopted in consonance with clause/article (93) of Jamiat's Constitution. It's a subsidiary organization under the heading of Khuddam-e-Millat.
4. To deal with the different cotemporary challenges hoping that it would herald a shining phase for the Indian Muslims.

VISION

1. To contribute to the development of young people in achieving their full physical, intellectual, social and spiritual as individuals, as responsible citizens and as members of the local, national and international communities.

2. That they recognize their own persons, their destination and their Lord and they choose to live with religious identity and religious fervent. And that they may be able to guard interests of Muslim Ummah.

MISSION

1. To promote the spirit of the sportsmanship amongst the youth and the students studying in various Schools, Madaras and other Institutions by way of training them in scouts and Guide, Self Defence, Yoga & other sports which are beneficial for their health.

2. To promote the sense of brotherhood and nation loving amongst all the students throughout India and to make them aware about the exemplary acts of the nation builders, freedom fighters and leaders and about their great sacrifices for the nation.

OBJECTIVES-1

Jamiat Youth club has twin objectives that find their reference in the traditions of the Prophet of Islam (صلى الله عليه وسلم).

(1) Producing and preparing strong momin. This objective finds it resonance with a Prophet saying that a strong momin is dearer to Allah Almighty than a weaker one.

(2) Preparing a momin for serving the humanity. The prophet of Islam is reported to have said that “Best among people are those who benefit mankind”
